

Nepal

Tulasi Nepal (Tulsi)

International Alert—Nepal

Email: tulsinepal09@yahoo.com; tulsinepal@gmail.com

Tulasi is currently a Senior Programme Officer with International Alert-Nepal focusing on Justice and Security Sector Reform and Strengthening Peacebuilding Practices through capacity building. He was involved in community development in Nepal for more than a decade and served as Program Manager for Action Asia's programmes in Nepal for two years (2007-2009).

Shiva K Dhungana

Search for Common Ground

Email: skdhungana@gmail.com

Shiva is currently associated with Search for Common Ground in Nepal as Design, Monitoring and Evaluation Coordinator. He is designing a comprehensive monitoring system of peacebuilding for SFCG projects globally. Before joining SFCG, he was involved in conflict transformation and peacebuilding research for five years, and social science research for more than a decade. He has done extensive research on community security, nexusconflict and international relations, refugees, and IDPs,

Ramji Prasad Neupane

Canadian Cooperation Office

Email: ramjineup@yahoo.com

Ramji holds a Ph. D. (Regional and Rural Development Planning) and M. Sc. (Agriculture Systems) degrees from the Asian Institute of Technology, Bangkok. Since 2001, he has been working with the Canadian Cooperation Office (CCO) in Kathmandu, Nepal as the Program Coordinator and is primarily responsible in supporting conflict transformation and peacebuilding activities. He has more than 18 years of experiences in conflict transformation and peacebuilding, natural resources management, agro-forestry, rural/community development, democratic governance, civic education, election monitoring and strengthening civil society organizations. He is also a visiting Faculty in one of the universities in Nepal.

Yasodha Nakarmi Shrestha

Danida HUGOU

Email: yaso_shrestha@yahoo.com

Yasodha is currently working as Inclusive Democracy Advisor at Danida HUGOU (Danida Human Rights and Good Governance) office in Kathmandu. she worked for the Canadian Center for International Studies and Cooperation as Team Leader for the Jana Awaaj Project: People's Participation in the Constitutional Process. duration of the project was for two years from Feb 2007.

Ishwor Koirala

Center for Peacebuilding and Reconciliation Promotion (CPRP)
Email: ikoirala@gmail.com

Ishwor is the Program Coordinator of SODARC-CPRP and his main task is on planning and providing peacebuilding, human rights and conflict transformation trainings to different stakeholders of the country, mainly for community level/local peace committees and for the Ministry of Peace and Reconstruction.

Shobha Gautam

Institute of Human Rights Communication in Nepal
Email: shoba_basnet@yahoo.com

Shobha Gautam is a journalist and women's rights activist who has written extensively on the situation of women in conflict and has been advocating for the rights of women for the past twenty-two years. She is the Founder and President of the Institute of Human Rights Communication in Nepal (IHRICON), General Secretary of Nepal Press Institute (NPI), core group member of South Asia Peace Alliance (SAPA) and Coordinator of its Media component, and Executive Member of Nepal's Citizen Peace Commission.

Mukti Suvedi

Caritas Nepal
Email: muktisuvedi@gmail.com

Mukti works as Head of Peace Desk of Caritas Nepal and he is also the Vice President Peace Initiative Network-Nepal. He has just completed his MA in Applied Conflict Transformation Studies from Pannasastra University, Cambodia.

Bikram Bajracharya

Nagarik Aawaz
Email: bikrambajracharya@hotmail.com

Currently, Bikram is working at the national level of an NGO called Nagarik Aawaz (Voice of Citizens) as a program coordinator of Women and Youth as Pillars of Sustainable Peace (WYPSP) program. This program is financially supported by European Commission (EC) and CARE International UK and technically supported by CARE-Nepal.

Ambika Devi Mishra

Institute of Peace and Development (INPED)
Email: ambika.mishra@gmail.com

Ambika is a human rights and peace activist and currently the general secretary of INPED, as well as program coordinator, researcher and designer of education and awareness materials on peace and human rights. She holds a Masters Degree in sociology and has been through numerous training on conflict transformation and peace building, human rights, gender and social development. She has been working in the field of human rights, women rights and peacebuilding for more than 7 years.

DB Subedi

International Alert - Nepal Programme

Email: db_subedi@yahoo.co.uk; dsubedi@international-alert.org

DB Subedi has a master degree in Social Anthropology from Central European University, Budapest, Hungary and another master degree in Sociology from Tribhuvan University, Nepal. He has been working at International Alert since 2008, where he is engaged in developing and implementing peacebuilding programmes and projects in Nepal. Mr. Subedi has worked with SOS Children's Village Nepal since 1994, as director of Youth Programme in eastern Nepal. As a founding Secretary General of Birat Civil Society, he has also made notable contributions to local peace initiatives in Biratnagar and eastern Nepal. Mr. Subedi has conducted studies on conflict and transnational migration in Nepal, private sector's roles in peacebuilding in Nepal, and Forced Migration and changes in socio-economic structures in Nepal.

Bal Kumari Rai Gurung

United Mission to Nepal

Email: balkumari.gurung@umn.org.np

Bal Kumari Rai Gurung works with the United Mission to Nepal as a Conflict Transformation Adviser. She has experience of the development work in Nepal since 1992. She is now doing her Masters on Applied Conflict Transformation Studies in Cambodia.

Sharad C. Neupane

Freelance Training Consultant

Email: sharadcn07@gmail.com

Sharad C Neupane is currently working as freelance consultant in the area of peace building trainings, writing manuals, impact assessment of the projects in Nepal. He holds a Masters in Applied Conflict Transformation Studies from Pannasastra University of Cambodia and Masters in Statistics from Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu Nepal. Sharad has more than fifteen years long experience working with various non governmental and governmental organizations in Nepal. He has publication in Nepali on 'Inclusion in Local Governance', Manual for peace group facilitation, participatory development manual for community workers. He has worked for 5 years as civil servant in Nepal government, two years as university teacher, 7 years in South Asia Partnership Nepal, and 2 years in Jagaran Nepal.

Sagun Basnet (nominated by Tulsi Nepal and Shiva Dhungana)

Search for Common Ground – Nepal

Email: sagunbasnet@gmail.com

Sagun is presently working as a programmatic evaluation consultant for Search for Common Ground Nepal. She is a Fulbright Scholar who has completed her Master's in Social and Cultural Analysis from New York University (NYU). Sagun also holds a MPhil Degree in English (a one and a half year of course on interdisciplinary subjects). In addition, she is a Master's Degree holder of English literature and philosophy and has participated in SIT's CONTACT Summer Peacebuilding Institute. Being experienced in varied jobs, ranging from Senior Office Assistant to an Assistant Lecturer at Patan Multiple Campus, Curriculum and Training Officer at Higher Secondary Education Board, News Editor/ Presenter at Nepal Television (NTV) and Communications Officer at Friends for Peace, Sagun has gathered a great deal of confidence to work along a range of different people and environment.

Rajendra Mulmi (nominated by Tulsi Nepal and Shiva Dhungana)
Search for Common Ground
Email: RMulmi@sfcg.org

Rajendra Mulmi is currently working as the Director of Programs for Search for Common Ground in Nepal. He holds a MA in Development Studies from Institute of Development Studies (IDS) in Sussex, UK under the British Chevening Scholarship. Rajendra has more than a decade long experience working with various national and international organizations. In 2001, he founded a youth-led NGO called Youth Initiative and in 2005 the Association of Youth Organizations in Nepal, an umbrella of youth-led NGOs. He has also served on the leadership of various international youth networks and provided services to a number of international agencies including the World Bank, UN, Save the Children and UNESCO. His current research interests are youth, conflict, security and democratization.

