

Pakistan

Jahangir Piara

United Religious Initiative
Email: jpiara@hotmail.com

Jahangir is working for peace education and interfaith harmony along with their other development programs like health, advocacy on women and child rights. He is currently working as Youth Planning Team member of United Religions Initiative and also a representative for South Asia of International Peace Bureau. He has been working for peacebuilding and interfaith harmony for the last eight years. Based on his experience and commitment for a culture of peace through Interfaith Dialogue, the Children of The Earth President and directors has appointed him as Regional Coordinator for Children of the Earth Chapter in Pakistan/Asia. He has participated in many regional and international conferences and events.

Mehlaqa Samdani (nominated by Baht Latumbo and Paula Green)

Center for Strategic and International Studies
Email: msamdani@csis.org

Mehlaqa Samdani is an adjunct fellow with the Post-Conflict Reconstruction (PCR) Project at CSIS. She previously managed political development projects in Pakistan, training women in rural Punjab to contest local council elections. Prior to her work with CSIS, she was a research associate at the Council on Foreign Relations, where she examined the role of women in effecting religious, political, and social change in the Islamic world. She has researched and worked in various conflict settings such as the Sudan, Afghanistan, Bosnia, and Israel/Palestine. She has also been actively involved with track-two peace initiatives between India and Pakistan. Her writings have been published in the New York Times, Christian Science Monitor, Far Eastern Economic Review, Daily Times, Common Ground News Service, etc. Ms. Samdani is a graduate of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and has an undergraduate degree from the University of Denver.

